Introduction

Creative

For more than a quarter century, Creative has been a pioneer in digital entertainment products. Innovative hardware, proprietary technology, applications and services enable consumers to experience high-quality digital entertainment - anytime, anywhere. The Creative family of brands includes Sound Blaster audio products, Cambridge SoundWorks consumer electronics, E-MU Systems professional audio, and 3DLabs professional visual processing. Built on this foundation, the award-winning ZEN portable media players take premium audio and video experiences wherever you want to go.

This Guide

Creative Digital Media Relations has prepared this guide to assist you in identifying applications that directly support Creative portable media players and their capabilities. Registered partners also have access to priority encoding, programming, and technical support. If you need further assistance, please contact your nearest Digital Media Relations office.
